

Aurelia Thiérrée(France): From Aurelia's Oratorio to Murmurs

Start: Nov 22, 2010

Cost: Free

Category: Fall 2010,
International Theatre

End: Nov 22, 2010

Venue: Segal Theater

Aurelia's Oratorio
Photo Richard Haughton

Internationally acclaimed performing artist Aurelia Thiérrée joins us to discuss her unique approach to creating physical and image-based theatre. Thiérrée's enigmatic one-woman performance piece Aurelia's Oratorio has been touring across the United States and around the world for seven years. London's The Guardian called the Oratorio "Bewitching... Theatre is all about the suspension of disbelief: Thierree takes things one step further; she makes you think that you have seen what you have not seen." Thierree's newest work, Murmurs, also created in collaboration with and directed by

Aurelia Thiérrée
Photo Laurent Stinus

Thierree's mother Victoria Thierree Chaplin, premieres in March 2011. Murmurs explores the power of walls, following a woman on the run through an abandoned city.

6:30 p.m., Monday, November 22, 2010

Martin E. Segal Theatre. Free!